Sections 9, 10 and 11 of the District Board Regulations defining the qualifications of voters and candidates are also published hereunder:—

Section 9.— What persons may be voters at elections.—

Every person who is not less than 21 years of age and who is not subject to any disqualification specified in section 10 or any other provision of this Regulation or the rules thereunder shall be entitled to have his name entered in the list for a constituency prepared under section 8, qualifying him to vote at elections of members to District Boards in such constituency, if he,

(a) in the case of a special constituency possesses the qualifications prescribed by the Government in that behalf,

(b) in the case of general constituency possesses one or more of the qualifications described in Schedule I and is also a subject of His Highness the Maharaja by birth or domicile and has resided in the Mysore State or in the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, for six months prior to the date fixed for the preparation of the electoral list.

Explanation.—"Subject of His Highness the Maharaja by domicile" means one who resided in the Mysore State or in the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, for a period of not less than five years.

Section 10.—General Disqualification of Voters—

No person may vote who—

(a) has been sentenced by a Criminal Court imprisonment or whipping for an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding six months, or to transportation, such sentence not having been subsequently reversed or quashed; or

(b) is a person against whom an order has been passed under section 118 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1904, in proceedings instituted under section 110 of that Code, such order not having been subsequently reversed or quashed; or

(c) has been dismissed from Municipal District Board or Government Service and debarred from being re-entertained in such service, or

(d) was a legal practitioner whose Sannad has been permanently withdrawn by a competent Court, or

(e) has been removed from office under section 27, or

(f) is a legal practitioner whose Sannad has been suspended by a final order of a competent Court, during the period of such suspension; or

(g) is of unsound mind, or

(h) is an undischarged insolvent;

Provided that—

(i) the disqualification in clause (a) will cease to operate after expiry of three years from the expiry of the sentence, or earlier by an Order of Government, and that in clause (b) after expiry of the period during which the person is ordered to furnish security; and

(ii) the disqualification in clause (c), (d) and (e) will cease to operate after expiry of five years from the date of such dismissal, withdrawal or removal, or earlier by an order of Government.

Section 11.—Qualifications necessary for election to District Boards.—

Any person whose name is entered in the list prepared under section 8 for a constituency and who is not a salaried officer or servant of the District Board or the Government, and any person who has not directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner, any share or interest in any work done by order of the District Board, or in any contract or employment with or under, or by, or on behalf of, the District Board, may be a candidate at any election in such constituency:

Provided that—

(i) no person shall be disqualified by reason only of such person—

(a) having a share in any joint stock company or a share or interest in any Literary Association registered under the Societies Registration Regulation, 1904, or in any society registered under the Mysore Co-operative Societies Regulation 1918, which shall contract with or be employed by or on behalf of the District Board; or

(b) having a share or interest in any newspaper in which any advertisement relating to the affairs of the District Board may be inserted; or

(c) holding a debenture or being otherwise concerned in any loan raised by or on behalf of the District Board; or

(d) being professionally engaged on behalf of the District Board as a legal practitioner:

(ii) a person who is already a member of District Board shall not be entitled to be a candidate at a bye-election held before the expiry of his term of office as member of such District Board.

SCHEDULE I.

Qualifications for Voters in General Constituency.—(See Section 9).—

(1) A person shall be qualified as a voter in general constituency who—

(i) is the registered occupant of land situated in the constituency and assessed to land revenue of not less than Rs. 25 per annum payable to the Government, or

(ii) is a Kadim tenant assessed to an annual rent of not less than Rs. 25 per annum on account of land held by him in the constituency to the holder of an alienated village to which the provisions of Chapters VIII to X of the Land Revenue Code have been applied; or less than Rs. five in the constituency, or

(iv) is the owner of alienated lands which would be assessed, if they were not alienated, to the land revenue at not less than Rs. 25 per annum; or

(v) is a Graduate of a University and ordinarily resides in the constituency; or

(vi) is a retired and pensioned Officer (whether commissioned or non-commissioned) of the Mysore State Troops and resides in the constituency; or

(vii) is assessed to income-tax to the Government and resides in the constituency.

(2) If property is held or payments are made jointly by the members of a joint family or partnership, the family or partnership shall be adopted as a unit for deciding whether the qualification exists and the vote shall be exercised, in the case of a Hindu Joint Family by the manager thereof or the member authorised by a majority of the family, and in other cases by the member or partner authorised in that behalf by a majority of the family or partnership concerned.

Explanation.—"Partnership" includes a company, firm, association, body of two or more guardians or trustees or the joint zamindars or other body possessing joint rights.

H. V. RAMASWAMI,
Deputy Commissioner.
